

Celebrating the Victory but battle not over yet

Hunters Hill Hill Save Our Council Celebration Party

Hunters Hill Mayor Emeritus Sue Hoopmann OAM hosted a Save Hunters Hill Celebration Party at the Deckhouse Woolwich on Monday night where she paid special tribute to The Weekly Times for leading the fight alongside Save Our Councils and Save Hunters Hill campaigners led by Phil Jenkyn OAM and Ross Williams, with no thanks to local State Members of Parliament. Long standing Liberal Party member Sue Hoopmann resigned from the Liberal Party in protest. TWT on-the-spot PHOTO.

Hunters Hill locals celebrated on Monday night at the Deckhouse Woolwich the saving of Hunters Hill Council from the mad Baird-Berejiklian State misGovernment's ill-fated compulsory council amalgamations. TWT on-the-spot PHOT

The battle is not over yet

The Liberal/National Party's policy of forced council amalgamations remains. Until legislation is in place requiring governments to have a mandatory plebiscite if a merger proposal is to be considered, the war has not been won.

Phil Jenkyn OAM at the Deckhouse 28 Aug 17    Mayor Richard Quinn at the Deckhouse 28 Aug 17

The Weekly Times 30 August 2017 as edited