

HUNTERS HILL VICTORY OVER FORCED AMALGAMATION 31 JULY 2017

The Hunters Hill community vowed at the large public Rally held in the Town Hall on 23 February 2016 to stand and fight to keep its council.

That fight was bloody but successful and on 27 July 2017 the Berejiklian Government retreated and said that it would withdraw its merger proposal.

Hunters Hill won its court case against the Government's deeply flawed amalgamation process on 31 July 2017, and officially received notification of the withdrawal on the same day.

Never again should any government attack the local democracy of our councils - never again attempt to force amalgamations against the will of the people.
