

Former Prime Minister Tony Abbott says Liberal Party an 'insiders club' – video

ABC News Saturday 10 February 2018 - video

Former PM Tony Abbott on Saturday at the Party's State Conference lost his attempt to give NSW Liberal Party members more control over MP pre-selections.

He says in this video: "The Liberal Party is still too much of an insiders' club.... the democratic reform movement within the Liberal Party will stay in and fight for further democratic reform."

This fight within the Liberal Party between the Right faction seeking "democratic reform" and the Moderate/Left faction controlled by "factional warlords" and "political lobbyists" will rage on all the way to the next NSW State and Federal election and beyond.
