

The Story of the Wagga By-election – PRIME7 News Videos

Six short videos cover the dramatic events that unfolded over six days in Wagga.

We start with the Liberal candidate's disastrous performance at the Tumut forum on 5 Sept – to election day Saturday 8 Sept and the presence of 'Save Our Councils Coalition' with 'Put Libs Last' signs and 'Save Tumbarumba Shire' with 'Demerger' signs – to the collapse of the Liberal vote and the Party – to the then close contest on 9 Sept between Independent Dr Joe McGirr and Labor's Dan Hayes.

We finish with Monday's concession by Labor that McGirr would indeed become the new member for Wagga.

Wagga, a once safe Liberal seat was now in the hands of a well-respected Independent.

The Liberals had self-destructed – not listening to or respecting local communities, not understanding the importance of local democracy, not transparent in their actions, and with an arrogant and born-to-rule mentality.
